AT THE PRESS AGENTS SAY

Lochrane's Benefit Tonight.

Lochrane, the clever Scotch comedian, is "stranded" here, as the slogan states it, through his theatrical contracts being broken, is to have his last night at the New Orpheum.
An army of local vaudeville talent will appear on a program which will be the best people showing in all theaters of the city.

Park Theater is loaning Morris Wilson, The Medoras, Sandart and Monte Sisters. The Bijou Theater, Dunn and Brandon, Monday and Gladys Middleton. The Savannah, the Mahan-Magraw company, the Wilson Sisters, George Stanley, Frank Foster. The Empire Theater will send over the Van der Zee company, Master Jimmie and Milton. The Great American Theater, loans the Weldon Acrobats and the Valle Musical company. In addition, Eva Alva, the little singer who was the interpreter for the Russian immigrants, Charles Fred, Fred, Rance Smith and Mike Paton and Weaver and others will be on the program.

Lochrane is being aided by his fellow comedians. The show people stand by him and readily give their service to the aid of one of their number who knows when hard luck will befall of some of those who help.

Lochrane has his little love with him and the little fellow is looking forward to his Christmas. The professionals, with the assistance of the audience, will give Lochrane his boy the right kind of a Christmas. The prices are popular, and performance starts at seven-thirty.

At the Bijou.

There was another good house at the last night and the program was better than on Monday night. It has been a bit here and there and audience left at the close better than at the beginning.

The motion pictures at the Bijou are a treat at any time and the orchestra fills a want in places where there is no orchestra. If there was no attraction at the Bijou the orchestra would draw the people in payment. The program company will start next week, when there will be an excellent talent. Friday will be the second "Amateur" and as a number of local people are willing to brave the dangers of the stage it is to be expected that there will be something doing.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Four Local News. No. 2000 A. O. F. will meet in Pythian Hall at half-past seven this evening.

The Hawaiian band will play this evening at the Christmas concert given by the Kakaia Mission for the children.

The little people of the Seaside Western Home will hold their Christmas celebration at the home, 1444 S. King street, Thursday evening, December 23, at half-past seven. A social invitation is given to all who wish to attend.

There will be a meeting of the Mahina Christmas Tree committee to-morrow morning at half-past ten o'clock at the pavilion of the Young Hotel roof garden. This meeting is an important one, as which full reports of progress will be made.

There will be a business meeting of the congregation of the Christian Church, after the regular prayer meeting this evening, to act upon the recommendation to call a pastor to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. A. V. McKeever. All the members are requested to be present.

CHILDREN'S GIFTS
WERE APPRECIATED

At the monthly meeting of the Associated Charities held December 19, the manager made special mention of the Thanksgiving offering from the children in the public schools, and from Punahoa Preparatory. The supply of groceries and fruits was a most thankful one, and the money offering a surprise, especially that from Kaimani School, which exceeded all previous donations. As this school is in what is always considered one of the poorest parts of the town, the gift was noteworthy, as indicating, either a more prosperous condition in the families of that district, or a better understanding of the Thanksgiving idea, or perhaps a combination of both.

A fine roasted chicken from Punahoa Preparatory was given to a family in which the mother and a son have been invalids for years, and are destined to suffer as long as they live. Kaahmann School was the other one participating in the offerings which provided plentiful Thanksgiving dinners for forty-four families.

W. A. BOWEN TELLS
OF Y. M. C. A. WORK

On Sunday last W. A. Bowen told the members of the local branch of the Y. M. C. A. what had been done at the International Conference held at Toronto on October 28. He took as his subject what he considered the most striking features of the conference.
Altogether there were 1515 delegates present, representing 525 associations.
Throughout the conference the gatherings were very large and at one of the meetings 4000 were present.
The growth of the movement during the last few years has been enormous.
The following are the main percentages which have been worked out. Gain in number of associations, forty per cent; membership, ninety-four per cent; buildings, ninety-four per cent; valuation of property, one hundred seventy-three per cent; and current expenses one hundred seventy-three per cent.
Only one evangelistic service was held and that was a wonderful success. Out of the 4000 men present over 600 came forward and expressed themselves.

HOSPITAL WILL NEED
QUANTITY OF DRUGS

The treasurer of the Queen's Hospital is advertising for tenders for furnishing the hospital with drugs, medicines, medical and surgical supplies for a period of twelve months from January 1, 1921, in quantities as called for by the superintendent.

The Queen's Hospital uses an immense amount of supplies of the kind called for, the institution having grown tremendously during the past two years, while the number of patients is on the increase.

The staff of nurses at present on duty is one of the best which the institution has had for many years.

OLD BOSTON SOLD.

WASHINGTON, December 10. — Seven bids were received by the navy department for the cruiser Boston, the highest of which was from A. Goldberg of Vancouver, British Columbia, whose proposal was $20,000. No bid was received for the purchase of the gunboat Concord, which was advertised at the same time. Both of these vessels, which are condemned, took part in the battle of Manila Bay. Other bids submitted for the Boston were:

David Berovich, Oakland, California, $18,250; G. Albers, Seattle, Washington, $17,200; J. Panoskey, Oakland, California, $16,570; United Engineering Works, San Francisco, $15,350; Erickson Construction Company, Seattle, $12,500; Alex Zeeve, Seattle, $11,200.
Both vessels are now at the Puget Sound Navy Yard.

SEATTLE, Washington, December 10. — It is the understanding here that the cruiser Boston will be turned over to the Puget Sound naval militia and stationed at Seattle. Governor Hay of Washington asks that such disposition be made of the cruiser, and the government's office and the navy yard have been informed that the navy department has accepted the proposed use of the cruiser. The Boston was built in 1883 at a cost of $300,000.

EXTRAORDINARY SUCCESS OF THE NEW EMPIREGLADSTONE SISTERS AT THE EM-PIRE

Instant success marked the reopening of the Empire Theater last night under the new management of J. T.
Scully, crowds being turned away from one of the best all-round vaudeville performances ever given here.

The Empire partook of the look of a regulation theater in its new furnishings and the stage proved adequate for the many and novel acts put on. Manager Scully was congratulated upon the selection of talent made for him in San Francisco. One act, put on by musicians who were really being tried out, was eliminated immediately after their first appearance, but the remainder of the acts were clever and the last turn was really extraordinary.

The Gladstone Sisters put on one of the most remarkable acts and fairly captured the audience, which went almost wild in its applause. As acrobats these two sisters, the oldest being but fourteen years of age, have no superiors.
Their singing is almost ear-splitting because of its sweetness and the peculiar blending of their voices, but their dancing and acrobatic turns are really remarkable.

They perform the most amazing contortions, but there is never an aw-ward movement. They are graceful, vivacious and show a remarkable control of their muscles. Beyond the mere contortion acrobatics, they do many things which require muscle, but there is no display of muscle. Throughout all their performance they are smiling and make a pretty appearance. They are one of the biggest hits of the show.

Edna Randall, an operatic mezzo-soprano, possesses a rich, well modulated voice, and even the gallery applauded her two songs. She has a charming stage presence.

The Great Snook gave a burlesque spiritualistic scene, during which he used a cabinet, in which he was placed after being tied to a chair and did many stunts there, such as removing his coat, putting on another's, and searing a young fellow who went into the cabinet with him. This act is full of fun for the audience, and Snook shows that he is a past master in the tricks of spiritualists and duplicates the feats of many of the great tricksters. He is assisted by Miss Cleopatra Dunn, who performs her silent part well.

The same bill runs tonight and tomorrow night.

There is no better candy than Haas' sold by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Fort and Hotel street.

A FOOLISH OLD IDEA.

It was once thought that a medicine was all the more beneficial for having a nasty taste and smell. We now know that such an idea is perfect nonsense.
There is no more reason why medicine should offend the senses than why food should do so.
Therefore, one of the greatest chemical victories of the past few years is what we may call the redemption of cod liver oil.
Everybody knows what a vile taste and smell this drug has in its natural state. No wonder most people declare they would rather suffer from disease than take plain cod liver oil, and the emulsions are as bad, no matter what may be alleged to the contrary. Now it is one of nature's laws that a medicine which dis-tastes the nose and the palate, and also sickens the stomach, can have no good effect as a medicine, because the system refuses out to be delivered from it. In WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION the desired miracle is wrought, and we have the valuable part of the oil, without the other. This effective modern remedy is palatable as honey and contains all the curative properties of pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry.
The palate accepts it as it does sugar, confectionary or cream.
Taken before meals it goes to the very secret stronghold of digestive disorders, and strengthens the system against Scrofula, Throat and Lung Troubles and all diseases due to impurity of the blood. Dr. G. C. Shannon, of Canada, says: "I shall continue its use with, I am sure, great advantage to my patients and satisfaction to myself." It has all the virtues of cod liver oil none of its faults. Sold by chemists
